

Meherrin Indians, Petition to the Governor of Virginia, 1723 to the most onrable Gouernor of uergerney a pet shen from the meherin Engnes to your most mirable kindness and excellen wee pore Engnes have need for to complas to your most onrable kindness for our Land is all taken from us and the English do say that they will come and take our corn from us that wee have made in our corn feldes and wee cannot live at rest Except your most onrable kindness do * Wee sum thing to the Contray for Wee are your most ablen Subjects and Will bee to his most Grail Magasty and under your most mirable Command in hope of sum relief by your most onrable kindness September the 9 Day 1723

Citation: Virginia (Colony), Colonial Papers, Petition of the Meherrin Indians, 1723 Sept. 9. Accession 36138. State government records collection, The Library of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.

Meherrin Indians, Petition to the Governor of Virginia, 1723

to the most onrable Govner of vergeny a petshen from the merhen Engnes to your most onrable hiness and Excelency wee pore Engns have kneed for to Complian to your most onrable hiness for our Land is all taken from us and the English do say that they will Come and take our Corn from us that wee have made in our Corn felds and wee Cannot Live at rest Except your most onrable hiness do order sum thing to the Contray for Wee ar your most oblein Subgetes and Will bee to his Most Rail Magasty and under your most onrable Comand in hope of sum Relief by your most onrable hiness

September the 9 day 1723

Citation: Virginia (Colony), Colonial Papers, Petition of the Meherrin Indians, 1723 Sept. 9. Accession 36138. State government records collection, The Library of Virginia, Richmond, Virginia.