A man who voted for Lincoln in Fairfax County

EXCITEMENT AT FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE.—

We learn from a friend that on Wednesday at Fairfax Court House, a man named Garfrel who had voted for Lincoln, was seized by a party while he was coming out of the Court-house and carried a short distance from the village, where he was blacked completely with printer's ink, mounted on his horse and started for his house in as uncomfortable a situation as one would wish to be in.
