JNO. M. GREGORY.

NEGRO HIRING.

THOMAS H. TALIAFERRO offers his services again to his friends and the public generally in Hiring out Negroes for the ensuing year. He takes this method of informing those who wish to employ him, that it would be advisable to inform him as early as they can, that he may have an opportunity of getting good homes. He pledges himself that every exertion shall be used to obtain good prices and good homes, and hopes that an experience of many years will entitle him to a share of patronage.

He will also continue to act as General Agent for the Renting out of Houses, Collecting Claims, &c., and pledges himself to spare no exertions to render entire satisfaction to all who may favor him with their business.

Office—Corner of Wall and Franklin streets.
Richmond, Nov. 26, 1847.—ctf
