LAND, NEGROES, &c., AT AUCTION.
HORSES, COWS, OXEN, SHEEP, CORN, FODDER,
OATS, FARMING UTENSILS, &c., &c.

ON MONDAY, the 4th day of December, 1848, will be sold, without reserve, on the premises, at public auction, my Farm, called INDIAN FIELDS, situated in Charles City county, Virginia, one mile from the public landing, on James river, called Swinyards', and within three miles of the Court-house, containing 620 acres, 360 of which are in open fields, for cultivation, and the remainder in woods—(timber suitable for ship-building.) The soil is suitable for wheat, oats, Indian corn, and every other production of this part of Virginia, and contiguous thereto is an abundance of marl.—The improvements consist of a dwelling house, and necessary yard houses and quarters. The barns and stables are commodious and good.

Also, twenty-five likely Negroes, together with all the Horses, Cows, Oxen, Sheep, Farming Utensils, Corn, Fodder, Hay, Oats, &c., on said farm.

The public generally are invited to attend.

TERMS made known on the day of sale. In the mean time, persons wishing to purchase are requested to call and examine the property.
