

Historical Source Analysis Sheet

1. What kind of source is this? (map, photograph, written document, cartoon, etc.)	2. When was this source created?
3. Who created the source?	4. Who was the intended audience for this source?

5. What do you think are the three most important or interesting things about this source?

6. Does this source make an argument or assertion? If so, what is it?

7. Why was this source created?

8. What are three questions you have about this source or its creator?

9. On the back of this sheet, answer this last question: how does this source help to relate the history of a particular group of people or of the United States?