Phillip Gowen, Petition for Release from Servitude, 1675 Transcription p. 2 of 2 (modern spelling)

To the Right Honorable Sir William Berkeley Knight, Governor & Captain General Of Virginia with the Honorable Council of State:

The petition of Phillip Gowen a Negro, in all humility showeth, that your petitioner being a servant to Mrs. Amye Beazlye late of James City County Widow deceased the said Mrs. Beazlye made her last will & testament in writing under her hand & seal, bearing date the 9th. day of April Anno Domini 1664, and amongst other things, did order, will, & appoint, that your petitioner by the then name of Negro Boy Phillip, should serve her Cousin Mr. Humphrey Stafford, the term of Eight years then next ensuing, and then should enjoy his freedom & be paid three barrels of Corn & a suit of Clothes, As by the said will appears. Soon after the making of which will, the said Mrs. Beazlye departed this life, and your petitioner did continue & abide with the said Mr. Stafford (with whom he was ordered by the said will to live) some years, and then the said Mr. Stafford sold the remainder of your petitioner's time, to one Mr. Charles Lucas, with whom your petitioner also continued, doing true & faithful Service, but the said Mr. Lucas coveting your petitioner's Service longer then of right it was due, did not at the expiration of the said Eight years, discharge your petitioner from his service, but compelled him to serve three years longer then the time set by the said Mrs. Beazley's will, and then not being willing your petitioner should enjoy his freedom, did contrary to all honesty & good conscience, with threats & a high hand, in the time of your petitioner's Service with him, and by his confederacy with some persons, compel your petitioner to set his hand to a writing, which the said Mr. Lucas now saith, is an Indenture for twenty years, and forced your petitioner to acknowledge the same in the County court of Warwick.

Now for that may it please your honors, your petitioner was at the time of the making this said forced writing, in the service of the said Mr. Lucas and never discharged from the same, the said Mr. Lucas always uniustly pretending that your petitioner was to serve him three years longer, by an order of Court is untrue, which pretenses of the said Mr. Lucas will appear to your honors by t[he] testimony of persons of good credit.

Your Petitioner therefore most humbly prayeth your honors to order that the said writing so forced from him be made void; and that the said Mr. Luca[s] make him satisfaction for the said three years service above his tim[e] and pay him Corn & Clothes with costs of Suit.

And your petitioner (as in duty bound) shall ever pray &c.
