NOT AS BAD AS IT SEEMED.
"Did you read, Mrs. Parvenu, that the Prince of Wales smokes three-dollar cigars? It seems like wicked extravagance."
"Oh! I don't know. The prince is no better than my husband, and I have bought him a three-dollar box of cigars for Christmas." — Detroit Free Press.

AT THE DENTIST'S.
REBECCA.—I would like to have a nerve killed. How much will it cost?
DENTIST.—Seventy-five cents.
REBECCA.—Seventy-five cents? Can't you make it less to me? I have such weak nerves! — German Exchange.

THE POINTS DISCUSSED.

At this season old riders congregate and talk wheel before purchasing their new mounts.
Young men and riders who desire a particularly light wheel, and one with a distinctive touch of grace and beauty, should examine the Stearns Special.
It's an édition de lux of the Stearns bicycle and costs $125.00.

MORE DIFFICULT NOW.

"George Washington," said the enthusiastic man, "never uttered anything that was not true."
"Yes," replied the politician; "but that policy was easier in those days. He never got mixed up in arguments on free silver and arbitration and a lot more of things that you have to take so many chances on when it comes to a question of fact." — Washington Star.

EVERY girl who has gone through a love affair, owns an ivory toilet set in a plush box as a souvenir. It is as much a staple gift in such an affair as a rattle box for a baby's first birthday. — Achison Globe.

NOT TO BE TURNED.
She was the observed of all observers. Yet her head was not turned. One reason for that was that she was a beginner; and, like all beginners, she did not do a thing but glare fixedly at her front wheel.
