Communications made to the subscribers by Solomon the property of Thos. W. Prosser of Henrico, now under sentence of death for ~~was~~ plotting an insurrection, ~~but~~.

My Brother Gabriel was the person, who influenced me to join him and others in order that (as ~~he~~ he said) we might conquer the white people & possess ourselves of their property. I inquired ~~how~~ how we were to effect it? he said by falling upon them (the whites) in the dead of night, at which time they would be unarmed & unsuspecting. I then inquired who was at the head of the plan? he said Jack alias Jack Bowler I asked him if Jack Bowler knew any thing about carrying on war? he replied he did not. I then enquired who he was going to employ? he said a man from ~~car~~ (Caroline who was at the siege of York-Town, I who was to meet him (Gabriel) at the Brooke & to proceed on to Richmond take & then fortify it. —

This man from Caroline was to be commander & manager the first day, I ~~off~~ then after exercising the soldiers the command was to be resigned to Gabriel. If Richmond was taken without the loss of many men they were to continue there some time, but if they ~~was~~ sustained any considerable loss they were to bend their course for Hanover Town or York, they were not afraid, which, I continue at ~~that~~ ^{that} place as long as they found they were able to defend it, but in the event of defeat or loss at those places they were to endeavour to form a junction with some negroes, which ~~by~~ they had understood from Mr. Gregory's Overseer, were in rebellion in some quarter of the country. This information which they had gotten from the Overseer made Gabriel anxious upon which he applied to me to make ~~See the~~ ^{See the} swords, which I said to the number of ~~twelve~~ twelve. Every Sunday he came to Richmond to provide ammunition, & to find where the military stores were deposited. Gabriel informed ^{me} in case of success that they intended ^{to} subvert the whole of the ~~the~~ ^{Country} where slavery was permitted, but no further.

~~The first~~ The first places Gabriel intended to attack in Richmond were, the Capitol, the Magazine, the Penitentiary, the Governor's house & his person. The Inhabitants were, to be massacred save those who begged for quarter & agreed to serve as soldiers with them. The reason why the insurrection was to be made at this particular time was, the discharge of the number of soldiers one or two months ago. — which induced Gabriel to believe the ^{plan} would be more easily executed. —
